

Household Inventory List

The day of your arrival, please take the time to check your unit's inventory. Please call the front desk if there are any missing or broken items. Housekeeping will bring any needed replacements as time permits.

Inventory should be completed on the day of arrival; it will be assumed that the inventory is correct if the front desk has not received a call by 10 am the following day after check in day. As soon as possible after check out units will be inventoried by housekeeping, any missing or damaged items will be billed to your stay.
